Dear Mr. Newman:

Miss Thompson has spoken to me about your desire to exchange the two books which you left at the Society for some of the library's duplicate publications.

Although we do not have in our collection either of the books which you are offering, we do have works of a similar nature which cover much the same ground. Consequently, I thought I would return these volumes to you with the library's sincerest appreciation for your having brought them to our attention.

If you could let me know where you want the books sent and their approximate value, I will see that they are packaged and insured properly. Thanking you again for your thoughtfulness, I remain

Gentlemen:

The Treasury Department of the United States would like to borrow the negative of the front and back of Plate 4813 in your photographic department. These are pictures which I arranged to have taken many years ago.

Will you be nice enough to send them to me and I will be responsible for their return.

Dear Frank:

A few of the duplicate unbound A.J.N. pamphlets which you have received would be a help to our library. We want to complete a full set in original wrappers and remove bound volumes. We will substitute other issues which are bound or other issues of A.J.N. which are duplicates for us.

We would like for you to reserve for us:

Vol. 7 (4 numbers)
Vol. 8 (4 numbers)
No. 2, 3 and 4 of Vol. 9
No. 2 of Vol. 10
No. 3 and 4 of Vol. 18
Vol. 31 (4 numbers)
No. 4 of Vol. 32
Vol. 53, Part 3.

I will bring along our copies for exchange the next time I come. This will be a great help to us.

Thanks,

Eric P. Newman

what material is on the page following the verso of the title page?
Is it numbered?

I would be grateful for your information.

Dear Frank:

When I learned that your plated Earle Catalogue was stolen I mentioned the fact to you that I had a duplicate. It occurred to me that in your sale of triplicates you might have some items which our library needs. I spoke to George Kolbe about it and he indicated he had not listed the items ANS plans to dispose of, but had merely learned of a few from you. He had no objection to my making an exchange with ANS if that was agreeable to you.

I am wondering what triplicate books on American or English numismatics might be in the group.

I will appreciate your cooperation and look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Eric P. Newman
